

Cambridge English Examinations

Good Communication Practice

Speaking Skills for Cambridge English: First and Cambridge English: Advanced

Preparing for the Cambridge English: First and Cambridge English: Advanced examinations helps students develop all-round language competence at the B2 and C1 levels of the Common European Framework. The focus is on communicating in practical, real-life contexts, making the exam a positive experience for the candidates.

Contents:

This three-hour seminar will focus on the basics involved in preparing students for the Speaking tests at First and Advanced. It will provide an introduction to the formats and assessment criteria, and explore strategies and classroom activities to develop students' speaking skills at this level.

We look forward to meeting you!
