

Seminar: Cambridge ESOL Exams Assessing Spoken Performance at the B2 and C1 Levels

Seminar Description

This seminar will focus on the format and assessment criteria in the speaking tests at the B2 and C1 levels. Example classroom activities will be presented which can be used to motivate students to develop their communication skills at these levels. Participants will receive practical tips on how to build their students' confidence and help them to perform to the best of their ability.

Seminar Goals

The aims of this seminar are to:

- identify what kind of language and speaking skills are representative of the B2 and C1 levels.
- discuss motivating ways to practice these skills in class.
- examine the assessment criteria used to assess spoken performance.
- give participants the chance to practice using these criteria.
